

LEADERS PREPARE FOR FINAL CLASH

Administration Supporters
Will Yield no Compromise in Tolls.

AT SIMMERING STAGE.

Concerted Efforts of Republican Senators to Unite Against Repeal Policy of the President.

Washington, April 4.—The Panama canal tolls exemption controversy has reached the simmering stage in the Senate, pending consideration next week of the repeal bill and proposed compromises by the committee on Inter-oceanic canals. Leaders on both sides of the fight continue their activities, however, preparing for the final clash of the great legislative battle.

Two salient points were emphasized in the developments of the day. One was the concerted effort made by Republican senators to unite against the President's repeal policy, and the other was the reinforced determination of administration leaders to yield to no compromise on the house bill providing for flat repeal of tolls exemption for American ships.

Among Republican senators who have been classified as doubtful with regard to the repeal, there is a general tendency to line up against the President. Democratic senators who are championing the President's cause assert that they welcome this movement, confident that it can have no other effect than to solidify the Democrats and aid in assuring success for the administration. These Democrats, while assuming the part of their number cannot be induced to abandon their opposition to the bill, insist that there is every indication that all other majority senators eventually will support the measure.

They also are assured of support by some of the Republican senators, despite the effort to unite against the President.

Such Republicans as Senators Root, Lodge, Burton and McCumber are counted upon as unalterably opposed to tolls exemption for American ships, and with these votes the administration leaders retain their confidence that nothing can prevent ultimate victory for the repeal bill. One Republican senator who will vote against the repeal bill, said today that he was confident the administration had the votes to carry the repeal, and that nothing could change the situation.

A bill authorizing the President to contract with American registered steamship lines using the Panama canal were introduced yesterday by Representative Edmonds, of Pennsylvania. Under it tolls on American ships would be remitted for a period of ten years, the amount of such tolls to be payable out of the treasury every six months, and the American ships would be required to carry mails of all kinds without charge to the government.

The contracts would be with first-class vessels trading between the eastern and western coasts of the United States and Mexico, Central and South America, and subject to all existing or future general United States laws. Proofs would be required that these vessels were not railroad controlled.

"All agreements made with other parties and lines including the railroad lines," the bill provides, shall be approved by the Department of Commerce, and all freight rates shall be posted with and subjected to revision by the proper authorities."

These ships or lines would not be prohibited from pro-rating with all railroads on an equitable basis, but would be required to agree that in national emergencies they would be held at the Federal disposal to agree to give preference to goods made and produced by the United States. Tolls would be charged against any port of cargoes not originating in the United States or originating in South America and consigned to the United States.

NEW SOUTH AMERICAN OFFICER Will Assist Manufacturers in Devel- oping South American Trade.

To aid Southern Merchants and Manufacturers to extend their trade with Central and South American countries and the West Indies Islands, particularly the new fills to be opened by the Panama Canal, through South Atlantic and Gulf Points, President Fairfax Harrison announces that the Southern Railway, C. N. C. & T. P., Alabama Great Southern and Mobile and Ohio have approved, as South American Commercial expert in Charles L. Von Chandler, who has been South American Commercial expert in the Consular Bureau of the State Department. His office will be at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. Chandler has had years of experience in Latin American countries and is thoroughly acquainted with their markets and the needs of their peoples. He will advise Southern Merchants and Manufacturers as to where their wares can be sold, will aid them in the portions of letters and circulars and advise as to the method of packing required for different markets. Mr. Chandler will keep in touch with commercial bodies in Latin American countries and their diplomats at Washington, and will be able to give Southern business men the earliest possible information in regard to government and other large contracts to be let. He will also immediately begin a campaign in Latin American markets calling attention to goods that can be supplied from the South and the advantages of shipment through Southern ports.

Mr. Chandler is admirably equipped for this work. A Harvard graduate, he studied International Law at the University of Buenos Ayres, Argentina, and was for many years in the Construction and Diplomatic Service of the United States, the greater part of this time having been spent in Latin America.

SUICIDE BY MISTAKE.

Man Baffled in Attempt Killed by Poison He Thought Whiskey.

Wilmington, Del., April 4.—Edward McLaughlin, aged 44, who was committed to the Work House January 7, to serve six months for non-support, died at the prison last night, from the effects of carbolic acid which he swallowed this afternoon.

A few days ago he had attempted suicide, Dr. William H. Kraemer, the prison physician, said by cutting his throat with a small piece of metal he had picked up in the workshop. The doctor was dressing his wound today, and as he turned his back to wash his hands, McLaughlin jumped up on a chair, reached the top shelf and pulled down a bottle, took a drink and fell on the floor.

Before he became unconscious he told the physician he thought he was drinking liquor, for which he had a strong craving. All attempts to revive him failed, and he died in four hours.

PICTURES DESTROY ARM.

Boy Who Decorated Himself With Indelible Ink Faces Amputation.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 4.—When Joseph Donnelly, 14 years old, of No. 1554 Stiles street, a pupil in the Hestonville public school, was chastised by his teacher and banished from the room during the school session, several days ago, he sought revenge by decorating his left arm with an indelible pencil. As a result of his queer revenge young Donnelly will lose the arm.

He appeared yesterday at the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital, with his left arm swollen to nearly twice its normal size. Physicians who examined the arm said the swelling was caused by blood poisoning. When the boy tried to erase the drawings from his arm he rubbed the ink into the pores and the blood became infected. Donnelly is being kept under observation in the hospital, but the physicians say they will probably have to amputate the infected arm if his life is to be saved.

DENIES FALL OF CITY.

Tells Charge O'Shaughnessy That Villa Has Been Driven Back by Velasco—Congress in Session.

Mexico City, April 4.—Victoriano Huerta, unflinchingly faced his fate today, as he stoutly denied that Torreon had fallen or that his army had met with losses.

"Torreon has not fallen. It is a lie," he said to all whom he talked. His manner was that of a man who expected the worst, but did not fear it.

It is obvious that Huerta has determined to keep the news of Velasco's defeat away from the people of the city as long as possible. He has so completely cut off all lines of communication with the north that not even couriers have been able to get through with reports to any place where they could be forwarded by wire.

In a cafe last evening General Huerta met Charge O'Shaughnessy. He greeted the American official cordially, and with a smile said:

"Torreon has not fallen. Our men are driving Villa back." Huerta's smile seemed to say: "This is what we wish to be known. Kindly spread the report."

Despite the secrecy of the government officials the news from Torreon has filtered in from the United States in dispatches which were immediately classified as lies by Huerta. The local papers are all under Huerta's domination. Yet throughout the city there is a feeling of fearful uneasiness.

Most men who know Huerta believe he will die fighting. Many consider him capable of attempting to destroy the city if he is convinced that Villa will wrest it from him. The ruling opinion, however, is that Huerta will barricade himself against attack as long as possible, and then hold out to the bitter end.

"When Huerta falls it will be from a wound in the face," said one of his friends. "He will never turn his back to the enemy."

General Velasco and his army are lost, so far as any news here is concerned. It seems probable they have fled to the mountains, every man for himself.

Everywhere prices are soaring. The value of a Mexico peso is falling rapidly. Soldiers and citizens alike are trying to change their money into gold. For it is only gold that will profit anyone seeking to flee when the crash comes.

Congress was in secret session all night, endeavoring to devise some means of meeting the financial panic as well as the threatened collapse of the government. Huerta has been in close touch with the leaders. Even with the fall of Torreon, they have weeks and perhaps even longer, they believe, before Villa can approach the capital.

In the meantime, the grim old warrior, firm and fearless at the head of the tottering government, calmly takes his cognac and smiles.

GIRL SHOTS HER MOTHER.

Gettysburg Woman Didn't Know
Revolver Was Loaded.

York, Pa., April 4.—Virginia Adams, 16, of Gettysburg, while toying with a loaded revolver Thursday, pointed the weapon at her mother, and pulled the trigger. The ball entered the woman's head between the eye and from an X-ray examination lodged in the brain. There is practically no hope for her recovery. After the shooting Mrs. Adams was taken to Harrisburg. Miss Adams says she did not know the revolver was loaded.

APPOINTMENTS IN SENATE TODAY

Confirmation of Six Virginia Nominations Will End Contest.

NO FIGHT ON HART.

Richard H. Mann, of Petersburg, Will be Named as District Attorney for Eastern District.

Washington, April 4.—The battle for Federal patronage in Virginia has almost reached its end, and the next two days will bring to a finality the appointments of men to five of the seven big offices, who are friends of Senators Martin and Swanson, and the confirmation of John M. Hart, of Roanoke, whose appointment is the result of a hard campaign waged by Congressman Carter Glass.

The long expected nomination of Thomas C. Busch, of Martinsville, to be United States marshal to succeed Marshal Fulwiler, in the Western District of Virginia, was sent to the Senate yesterday by President Wilson. It had been originally intended to nominate Busch at the time the other five men were nominated two weeks ago yesterday but for some reason it was held up.

With the exception of Richard H. Mann, of Petersburg, who will be nominated next Monday or Tuesday as District Attorney for the Eastern District, all of the Virginians will be confirmed today, unless something unforeseen happens.

Norman R. Hamilton, of Norfolk, to be customs collector at Norfolk.

Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Winchester, to be district attorney in the Western District.

With these six appointments now assured, and that of Richard Mann promised for Monday or Tuesday, all the members of the delegation seem satisfied with the exception of Congressman Jones, who is bitterly disappointed in not having Robert L. Aylworth appointed as marshal in the East. Mr. Jones had literally set his heart on this appointment, and feels the "snub" keenly.

Mann's nomination is understood to be held up a few days, pending the arrival of the resignation of District Attorney Groner, which has been requested at once by the department.

Groner's resignation is expected to reach here today or Tuesday, and Mann will then be immediately nominated and confirmed. Should Groner decline to resign, Mann will be appointed to succeed him, and with the appointment of Mann, Groner's term will automatically expire.

Senator Martin stated positively late yesterday afternoon that he and Senator Swanson fully expect to secure the confirmation by the Senate today of the six appointments now before that body. These nominations have been held up by the Senators for some time while they disposed of a mass of routine business and fully considered the desirability of the appointment of each man. The desire to have all six appointed on the same day also played a part in holding up the others until Burch was in line.

The surprising part about the statement made by Senator Martin is that Hart is also to be confirmed, whereas it has been believed in well informed circles, and stated positively by men in a position to know, that Hart's nomination would be rejected.

President Wilson was never given assurance that the senators would not reject Hart's nomination, and when Hart called on the Senators here just two or three days ago, he also received no assurance from them.

After Burch's nomination was received at the Senate yesterday afternoon, Senators Martin and Swanson asked the different committees considering the Virginia nominations to hurry their reports, so that action could be taken today. Con-

DEATH NOTICE.

FANNY MCARTHUR, wife of Major John W. Green, died Friday, April 3rd, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis L. Williams, Pocomsco City, Md. Funeral at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow (Sunday) morning from St. Paul's Church.

Subsequently the different committees were given a personal poll, and all six were favorably reported. The nominations which will be confirmed today are:

John G. Saunders, of Richmond, to be marshal for the Eastern District.

Thomas C. Burch, of Martinsville, to be marshal for the Western District.

John M. Hart, of Roanoke, to be

EXONERATES FRANK.

Hearns Says Murderer of Mary Phagan is at Large, But He Can Nab Him.

Chicago, April 4.—William J. Burns, the detective, who has been at work for several weeks on the murder of Mary Phagan, of Atlanta, for which Leo M. Frank is under sentence of death, arrived here yesterday from Kansas City, and made this announcement:

"The murderer of Mary Phagan is at large, and I am in a position where I can lay my hands on him at any moment I so desire. The real murderer is absolutely without knowledge that any suspicion is directed toward him of having committed the crime. He probably would be the most surprised person to know that the crime has been fastened upon him."

"When the time comes, I myself will point him out and brand him before the world as the slayer of the Atlanta factory girl. Leo M. Frank will not hang April 7 for the crime. I took everything from the beginning. I questioned scores of witnesses. I saw those who testified at the trial and many that were not called."

His investigation soon showed him, Burns said, first that public clamor, after a "crime wave," had resulted in the police making extraordinary efforts to adduce evidence tending to convict Frank, and, second, that a report making out Frank a man of abnormal characterization was commonly circulated through the city, putting public opinion strongly against him."

His inquiries then convinced Burns that Frank was a perfectly normal man. On the other hand the testimony of physicians was to the effect that the one who attacked Mary Phagan was abnormal.

Then Burns interviewed many of the witnesses who testified in the case. At the conclusion of this phase of his investigation he said he was convinced that he knew the murderer.

"There was no mystery about the murder of Mary Phagan," said Burns. "The tracks of the murderer were plain and there is no doubt as to his identity."

"The story will all clear in a few days. I have made a complete report to Frank's attorneys in Atlanta, and in a few days it will be given out."

"I cannot anticipate my report, and therefore I cannot say more definitely than I have what the report will contain. The murderer of Mary Phagan is known to me and he can't get away."

"I will say that in my opinion Frank will not hang on April 17, for the murder of Mary Phagan. I believe the supreme court cannot ignore the evidence we have gathered."

Hearing of an extraordinary motion for a new trial in Frank's case, set for April 16, the day preceding that on which Frank is sentenced to die.

Atlanta, Ga., April 4.—Counsel for Leo M. Frank, under sentence of death for the murder of Mary Phagan last night said they had not received the report of William J. Burns, the detective, who has been investigating the case and who is expected here tonight.

FIRE HOME; KILLS FOUR.

Father and Baby of Family Alone
Evade Assassin With Axe.

Little Rock, Ark., April 4.—An unknown assassin, armed with an axe, early yesterday morning Mrs. Elihu Francis and three of her children in their home, near Fendley, having previously set fire to the house. The husband and father and a fourth child narrowly escaped the same fate.

According to statements made by Francis, he was awakened about 4:30 o'clock by the barking of his dog, to find his house in flames. Francis said he saw the assassin enter his wife's room, carrying an axe. Believing the intruder was searching for him, Francis ran into the yard in an effort to draw the man away from the house, but the slayer remained and killed Mrs. Francis and the three children, who ranged in age from 2 to 6 years.

Francis stated he then ran to the house, and the assassin disappeared. The flames by this time had enveloped the house and he was unable to enter the room where lay the bodies of his wife and children. He succeeded, however, in rescuing the 1-year-old baby.

VIRG PLAY II.

Special Appropri-
ed From War Depa-ment by Board.

SUM FOR HORSE HIRE.

Fredericksburg is Designated as Place
For Camp of Instruction for Infantry Officers of State.

Richmond, Va., April 4.—Practically all the Virginia volunteer troops will take part in the great national war game this summer if present plans do not go awry. The maneuvers are scheduled to take place between August 5th and 20th, and the Virginia militia will have ten days of this mimic warfare, reporting at Washington.

Before designating the troops to take part in the maneuvers, Adjutant General W. W. Sale will await the reply of the War Department to a request for a special appropriation of $14,000 for horse hire, which he was yesterday authorized to ask for by the State military board. This appropriation is deemed necessary by the board for the proper equipment of the troops.

Meanwhile the adjutant general is charged with the duty of impressing upon the several commands of the militia the rules of the war department which must be adhered to the regular appropriation is to be depended upon. These rules require that every infantry company shall muster thirty-eight men on actual duty, and each artillery command, eighty-six men. To accomplish this regulation the adjutant general will advise that each company carry more than the prescribed number of men to account for absences occasioned by the sick list, etc.

It is expected that Virginia will send a brigade of not less than 3,000 men in the three regiments, embracing forty companies of infantry, three batteries of field artillery, four of the hospital corps and brigade headquarters.

The military board at its adjourned meeting yesterday, decided that the summer camp of instruction for infantry officers will be held at Fredericksburg, the first week in June. Several cities were bidders for the camp. The designation of the other camps were fixed at Thursday's meeting, the artillery officers meeting at Tobyhanna, Pa., from June 1st to 13th, and the medical officers at Fort Myer, from June 13th to 25th.

Considerable routine business of no public interest was transacted yesterday. The members of the board are Governor Henry C. Stuart, Adjutant General Sale, Colonel O. B. James, General C. C. Vaughan and Colonel Jo Lane Stern. Major Joseph LeMasurier is secretary. All the members were present.

The Rev. Miles M. Sweeney, who married declares "Police Are After" Him.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 4.—The Rev. Miles M. Sweeney, former pastor of St. James' Catholic Church, at Sewickley, a suburb, who, it is alleged, was married in January through coercion to Mary Christian Moran, of Pittsburgh, rushed up to a policeman in Cleveland on Saturday night and cried, "The police are after me." He was sent to a Trappist monastery in Gethsemane, Ky., in custody of a deputy sheriff.

The priest was arraigned before Probate Judge Hadden, who, on learning that he was on his way from Pittsburgh to the monastery at Gethsemane when he suddenly decided to come to this city, agreed to permit him to continue his journey to the monastery.

DISORDERLY ON A TRAIN

Another Man Appears in the Police Court for Disorderly Conduct on Electric Cars.

Special Officer A. J. Payne made his appearance at opportune time on an electric train last night when Frank Terrett began to make himself disagreeable and obnoxious to other passengers. The special officer took him in custody, and when the train reached Alexandria he turned him over to the officers of this city.

Terrett was brought before the Police Court this morning when Justice Caton imposed a fine of $25.

Payne, in his official capacity as Game Warden of Fairfax county, arraigned George Wood, of Alexandria, before Justice Kerby in the police court room of this city yesterday to answer the charge of having in his possession an unlawful gun. According to the evidence the gun weighed one hundred and ten pounds, and was ten and a half feet long with an inch and a half muzzle.

Justice Kerby imposed a fine of $25 and $6 costs. Wood entered an appeal to the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, and gave bond for his appearance at the next term of that tribunal.

BLESS PALMS TOMORROW.

Holy Week will be ushered in tomorrow.

Holy Week, the most sacred season of the year in the Catholic Church, will be ushered in tomorrow, Palm Sunday. From that time on until Easter Saturday morning, when the Resurrection will be celebrated by anticipation, the deep note of sorrow will be seen in all the ceremonies of the church, and fervent Catholics will be unusually rigorous in their penitential exercises.

Palm will be blessed in all the Catholic Churches before high mass tomorrow morning, and will then be distributed to the members of the congregation. After the distribution there will be a procession of the sanctuary boys and priests through the church, while the choirs sing the triumphal songs that tell the entry of the Saviour into Jerusalem. The passion will be read in English and Latin, and the people will stand with palms over their right shoulders as they listen to the story of the tragedy of Calvary.

The Fine New Norfolk Suits in an Unlimited Variety of Patterns

Norfolk Suits are the ideal garments for the boy; they have the youthfulness of appearance that becomes boys in their dress, and at the same time, accoutrements, a manly carriage. All of our new suits are in the Norfolk style, though there are a number of models, and many of them that appear to be cut on the same patterns have little features that make them different.

Single-breasted Plain Norfolks, Norfolk Back suits with single breasted front; some of the Norfolks have the box plating carried out in the patch pockets; Stitch Belt Norfolks.

Patch pockets are very much in evidence, but the new patch pockets are more refined than ever, cut and placed on the garment with greater skill. The new striped blues are particularly refined and highly desirable—fine pin designs, chalk-lines, broad stripes, broken effects, new browns, tans, greys, greens in checks, stripes, plaids of every variation; every good pattern is shown.

Why Women Were Kept in Subjection in the Days of Paul.

Richmond, April 4.—An interesting and instructive address was delivered Thursday afternoon by Dr. E. B. Pollard, professor of homiletics at Crozier Theological Seminary, Chester, of Richmond, on "The Subjection of Women According to St. Paul."

"It is not a book of regulations," he said, "but of principles. Many of the injunctions in St. Paul's letters were designed to meet specific conditions which have since passed away. To quote his commands to women in an era when conditions in society were radically different from our own is to do an injustice to St. Paul as well as to our own sanity and ethical sense. Then women were uneducated, and society corrupt. It seemed expedient that safeguards be placed about them which are not necessary nor expedient today."

"St. Paul commanded women to wear the veil in public assemblies, keep silent in the churches and learn through their husbands. He commanded slaves to remain in subjection to their masters, and that all citizens submit to the Roman king—even when the king of that time was the cruel, tyrannical, unspeakable Nero. It would be a gross perversion of Paul's teachings to say that he favored slavery, sanctioned tyranny or commanded the subjection of women as a permanent condition of society, or to claim that if he were living today, he would tell American women exactly what he wrote to the women of Corinth twenty centuries ago."

DIES FROM INJURIES.

Burns Accidentally Received Prove Fatal to Woman.

Richmond, Va., April 4.—Mrs. Martha Robinson, 61 years old, wife of John S. Robinson who had been critically ill for the past few weeks as the result of serious burns, which were inflicted when her dress caught fire, from overheated stove, died yesterday morning at 7:35 o'clock at her home, 1100 Decatur street.

Mrs. Robinson was a resident of the Southside for many years, and had been prominent in church and social affairs.

MINISTER ON TRIAL.

Charged With Improper Conduct Toward Women.

New York, April 4.—The trial of Rev. Jacob E. Price, pastor of the Washington Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, on a charge of improper conduct, was begun yesterday before an ecclesiastical court. The charges were preferred by several members of Rev. Mr. Price's congregation, most of his accusers being women.

Although the trial is being conducted in secret, the witnesses spoke freely of the testimony that had been given, attributing their willingness to speak, in some cases, to an alleged attempt of the court to "whitewash" the accused minister.

In the main, the charges against Dr. Price are that he frequently attempted to kiss women members of his flock, and that he often succeeded. The story told by Mrs. E. J. Leger, a witness, yesterday may be taken as typical of the complaints.

Mrs. Leger declares that Dr. Price called upon her in May, 1913, "held her hand an undue length of time," kissed one or both of her hands and on another occasion "put his arm around her."

Three weeks later, her complaint continues, he called again, at that time Mrs. Leger was partially undressed.

It is alleged the minister insisted upon entering, and before he departed he caught, held, and kissed the complainant at the same time asking:

"What are you going to do about it?"

COLLEGE OF BISHOPS LOSES.

Vanderbilt University Gets $1,000,000 Gift From Carnegie.

Nashville, Tenn., April 4.—The application of the College of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church South for a rehearing of the Vanderbilt University case was denied by the Tennessee Supreme Court yesterday. The court upheld the decision rendered recently in which it was held that the Vanderbilt board of trustees was self-perpetuating.

Andrew Carnegie's gift of $1,000,000 to the university, rejected by the bishops, will go to the institution under the decision.

CHARGE PADDING ROLLS.

Sergeant Creates a Sensation at Highland Springs After Arrest.

Richmond, Va., April 4.—Quartermaster-Sergeant James E. Leffew, of Company H, 4th Infantry, Highland Springs, has created something of a sensation in military circles by making statements regarding the organization of the command. He declares, in effect, that the rolls have been padded, that some of the men are exempt from military duty because of their age and that others are not old enough to enlist.

Nearly a week ago the row started. It is said that a friend of the organization had loaned a team for the purpose of transporting the camp utensils and belongings, and that when the cook and another man got on the wagon Sergeant Leffew is said to have ordered them to dismount and to march with the men, who started on a hike. He said company funds paid for the team and that it was under his charge.

Captain Holden and First Lieutenant Cloyd heard of the matter and they countermanded the order of the quartermaster sergeant. He was put under technical arrest and was left at the building used as an armory.

Quartermaster Leffew then began to say things, and is said to have appeared before the military authorities, where he made the charge of padding. He is understood to have put the allegations in writing.

Adjutant General Sale declines to discuss the matter. Captain Holden will ask for a court-martial to make a complete inquiry into every charge that has been made. Both he and Lieutenant Cloyd are graduates of military schools. Captain Holden and Quartermaster Leffew have seen service with the regulars.

DEATH FOLLOWS BOXING.

Atlanta Bantamweight Dies as Result of Ten-Round Fight.

Atlanta, April 4.—James Grant, a bantamweight boxer, who had been unconscious since his collapse Tuesday night at the end of a ten-round bout here, died in a local hospital early yesterday. Physicians who attended him announced that pneumonia caused his death. A minute examination of his body, they said, showed no marks of a serious nature.

John Eggers, of New York, who was awarded a decision over Grant in the bout Tuesday night is at liberty on bond and probably will be arraigned late this afternoon on a charge of disorderly conduct. This charge was prepared against Eggers in police court an hour after Grant became unconscious.

Grant, who came to Atlanta from Chicago a year ago, had met many second-class boxers here. He was 21 years old.

Burch U. S. Marshal.

Washington, April 4.—President Wilson yesterday sent to the Senate the nomination of T. G. Burch, of Martinsville, Va., to be United States Marshal for the Western District of Virginia.

The famous "Axman," to whom a number of murders in various western States have been laid, visited Arkadelphia, Ark., late yesterday and killed Mrs. Elijah Francis and two of her children by crushing their heads with blows from an axe and disappeared.

GIRL IS SET FREE.

Shoplifter Who Stole $55 Suit Dismissed From Custody.

Richmond, Va., April 4.—Mary Bell, the 19-year-old girl arrested Thursday afternoon on the charge of stealing a $55 suit from Dreyfus & Co., 201 East Broad street, was dismissed from custody yesterday in police court when representatives of the company stated that they did not care to prosecute the matter any further, the suit having been recovered and satisfactory settlement made.

The girl made a clean breast of the theft and seemed very repentant. She said she did not know what prompted her to steal the garment.

Before the case was called she stated in court that she was formerly employed by the Metropolitan Engraving Company, having given up this position a week or two ago. She said she was an adept in art work.

The girl is rather pretty, with delicate, refined features and dark lustrous eyes. She was becomingly attired in a brown modish suit in court. Her parents reside in Lynchburg and are said to be very respectable.

It was learned yesterday that the directors of the Retail Merchants' Association, who happened to be in session Thursday when a report of the theft reached them, decided to take steps to bring several private detectives here in an effort to break shoplifting which is said to be costing local merchants thousands of dollars a year. The merchants, in taking this step, desire it known that they wish to cast no reflections on the city detectives, realizing that they have their hands full looking after their regular class of work.

NEGRO MURDERER CAUGHT.

Nora Waddey, Who Killed Joseph Terrell, Arrested at Covington, Va.

Nora Waddey, colored, who on January 23, 1910, murdered Joseph Terrell, colored, in a lunch room on upper King street, has been captured in Covington, Va. Sergeant W. J. Wilkerson, of the Alexandria police force, left here yesterday for Covington to bring the prisoner back to this city and is expected to return this afternoon.

The murder of Terrell was a particularly brutal one. He and Waddey had been paying attention to the same woman, who conducted a lunch room on King street. Terrell was in the kitchen of the lunch room when Waddey came behind him and hit him over the head with an axe, splitting his skull in twain. The man died the following day and Waddey ran away from the city.

A year ago he was located in Thurman, W. Va., and six weeks ago Chicago Goods received a letter from R. C. Duke, special agent of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, stating that the man was in Hinton, W. Va. Under a pretext Duke got him to cross the Virginia line and placed him under arrest. He acknowledged his identity.

Six prisoners who escaped from Cairo (Ill.) jail included W. M. Wilson, sentenced to be hanged.

W. B. Spader, a former broker of New York and Toronto, committed suicide at Coburg, Ontario, by shooting.

NEWS OF THE DAY

After three days' continuous struggle in the executive session of the Senate, the nomination of Prof. Winthrop More Daniels, of Princeton, N. J., to be Interstate Commerce Commissioner, was confirmed by the Senate by nine majority.

A report has been received in Vienna from Avlona, Albania, that Greek irregular forces were attacking Koritsa and other town on the Argyro-Castro and Koritsa line. Koritsa was reported to be in flames, and many persons are said to have been killed. A later dispatch said that Albanians were reinforced and repulsed the attack of the Greeks on Koritsa.

A stern warning to all Industrial Workers of the World who violate the law was given by Magistrate Levy in New York yesterday, when he found Miss Louise Berger distributing inflammatory literature. The magistrate suspended sentence upon the girl, but said that future offenders will get the limit of the law.

George Lefay, a chauffeur, shot and killed Pearl Frost, at Peabody, near Boston, Mass., late yesterday afternoon, and fatally wounded Walter P. Hillis, who attempted to capture him. Miss Frost was employed by Hills as a housekeeper. Lefay was captured.

A written invitation sent by the wife of a Presbyterian minister in Mount Vernon, Ill., to attend a missionary entertainment so aroused the jealousy of Mrs. Ngo Quong Ho, the Christianized Chinese wife of Jui Hon Yee, a merchant, and assistant superintendent of the Union Methodist Sunday School, that she hacked him to death with a hatchet late Wednesday night in their home here. After she had killed her husband in a room above his store, she calmly covered up the body with a blanket and kept a lonely vigil in the kitchen downstairs until today.

No words has been received from the sealing steamer Southern Cross. It is now feared that her entire crew of 170 men have perished in the blizzard that wrecked the sealer Newfoundland. The Newfoundland's dead are known to number seventy-seven, and several more of the 112 who were rescued probably will not survive. The Southern Cross was last seen on Tuesday, just before the blizzard set in.

Count Boni de Castellane, whom the former Anna Gould divorced, has it is said decided to renounce all worldly affairs and join the Order of Jesuits. Following the example of another celebrated clubman, Count Castellon de Saint Victor, he will become a father of the Jesuit company and enter a monastery.

What probably has been the most bitter political campaign in the history of Alabama will close tonight. A complete straw vote of the state just completed estimates the total vote Monday for United States Senator at 137,500, the largest ever polled. Of this Underwood it is estimated will receive 84,500 and Hobson 53,000. Underwood will carry every congressional district except the Sixth, Hobson's home district.

Patrick Eagleton, and Mrs. Denis Arsenault, 60 years old, of Spencer, Mass., dropped dead from fright in the street yesterday afternoon as they witnessed a three-cornered fight between Martin Niederberger, a chauffeur, and Stanley Orutt and Charles Bannon, employees of a cereal company, who were distributing samples in the town. Orutt and Bannon, while distributing samples earlier in the day, had called at the home of Walter Watson, Niederberger's employer. Mrs. Watson claims she was insulted by one of the men, and she informed her husband when he returned home. Mr. Watson and Niederberger started out after the two distributors and located them in the trolley station shortly before 2 o'clock. The yehanged the strangers with insulting Mrs. Watson, and it is said that Orutt retaliated with a punch that sent Niederberger to the floor.

William Barnes, chairman of the Republican Committee of New York, through his attorneys began a suit for libel yesterday against William H. Anderson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of the State of New York. Mr. Barnes in his complaint asks for $5,000 damages and the costs of the action. The suit is based upon an open letter to Mr. Barnes, which Mr. Anderson gave out for publication on March 23, and in which he accused the State chairman of using his influence to kill the Optional Local Prohibition bill at the last session of the Legislature.
